LIVE AUCTION #2: IN GREEN PASTURES

In Green Pastures Original art by Josiah Wu

Josiah Wu, a freshman Business Honors major at Texas A&M University who is already making an incredible impact. For the 3 years, Josiah has participated in the Houston Livestock Show, showcasing his stunning series on Indian Warriors. Year after year, his pieces have been selected out of thousands of submissions and sent to auction, raising an astounding $125,000 cumulatively! Not bad at all for a business major with a big heart and a bold vision!

Josiah has a natural gift, one that God has clearly blessed him with, and he has chosen to use it in the most meaningful way: raising money to support scholarships, education, and children in need. Again, Josiah will be serving our community with his donation of Horses for our live auction in celebration of The Year of the Horse. Any bidders starting at the $30,000 range?

His parents, Cindy and David Wu, couldn't be prouder. Their family has long served our community through founding Mosaic Formation and many years of dedicated work with refugee ministry, living out compassion through action. Please join us in celebrating Josiah Wu for his beautiful donation to pediatric brain cancer research and The Cure Starts Now. Your talent, faith, and generosity are changing lives, Josiah — and we are so grateful.
