

HELP FIND THE HOMERUN CURE FOR ALL CANCER.

Courage for Carter is in honor of Carter King. Carter was an incredible boy who passed away at the age of six from DIPG. Carter was very intelligent and could light up a room the second he walked in. He constantly wanted to learn subjects like science and biology, loved aviation, building Legos, had a passion for drawing, and watching Star Wars for the walkers.

Carter loved telling jokes to people and making them smile. If he saw someone who seemed down, he somehow knew exactly what they needed to cheer up. Carter also had his dream pet, which is a tarantula, because he said scary things need love too. He truly had a huge and compassionate heart for everything and wanted the best for everyone.
